SPROUT CAFÉ ANNOUNCES EIGHT HEALTHY FOOD STORES THROUGHOUT ATLANTA NOW CARRY SPROUT CAFÉ FOOD

ROSWELL, Ga. (Aug. 28, 2002)— Sprout Café Shinui Living Food Learning Center, the only Atlanta-based living food restaurant, organic market and learning center, announced today that eight major health-food stores in Atlanta now carry several of the café's food items.

The stores include Life Grocery and Natural Market Place in Marietta, Sunburst Natural Foods in Roswell and Life's Essentials, Nuts and Berries, Return to Eden, Sevananda and Unity Natural Foods in Atlanta.

"We are pleased to provide our food in people's neighborhoods to make it more convenient for them," says café owner and head chef Jackie Graff.

Now, Atlanta vegetarian food enthusiasts who shop at these stores can buy Sprout Café's line of all-raw crackers, cookies, energy bars, apple pie, carob candy, veggie kraut, curry lentil cabbage and vegan kim chee salad.

"This is just the beginning. We plan to expand our food offerings in the stores based on demand," says Graff.

David Gerhard, owner of Natural Market Place, says he is excited that the café's food is now available for his customers when they want it.

"Eating living foods requires preparing ahead of time, which can make it difficult for people to stay on the lifestyle. Now they can get fresh, affordable raw food on the go from the Sprout Café. It's wonderful to provide this convenience to my customers."
